

About this form

This form can be used to arrange a super payment from the account of your former spouse under a family law arrangement.

Request for family law information

To obtain information about the value of the superannuation account/s, you need to complete:

- A Form 6 declaration
- A Superannuation information request form.

These forms can be found in the Superannuation Kit on the Family Court of Australia website, fcfcoa.gov.au

Agreement to split super

When you and your former spouse have determined how your super will be split, you need to prepare a formal written agreement or obtain a consent order or a court order.

• Formal agreement

A lawyer can help to prepare a formal written agreement which must include a signed certificate stating that both parties have taken independent legal advice.

• Obtain consent or a court order

If you and your former spouse have reached an agreement, you can apply for consent orders in the Family Court.

If you are unable to reach agreement, you will need to file an application for a court order.

For further information, see the Family Law Court of Australia website at fcfcoa.gov.au

Notify Equip Super

Once you've reached a formal agreement, a draft copy of the agreement should be submitted to Equip Super for review.

If you're applying for court orders about super, you must notify Equip Super in writing and provide a draft of the proposed order for our approval.

Equip Super has 28 days from the date we receive your draft Court Order to review and advise if any changes are required.

After an order is made

Following an order being made or a formal agreement being approved, to split super you need to:

- complete and return this form
- provide a certified copy of the final court order, consent order or agreement
- provide certified proof of your identity.

Preservation rules

Super benefits are subject to preservation rules set by government law. This means that you may not be able to access some or all of the money in your Equip Super account until you reach your preservation age listed in the table below:

Date of birth	Preservation age
Before 1 July 1960	55
1 July 1960 to 30 June 1961	56
1 July 1961 to 30 June 1962	57
1 July 1962 to 30 June 1963	58
1 July 1963 to 30 June 1964	59
1 July 1964 or after	60

Other important information

Benefits are usually processed within five days of Equip Super receiving a fully completed and signed application along with the correct proof of identity documents. The payment may take longer if we need to collect further information from you.

The unit prices applied to the benefit payment will be the latest prices available on the day your benefit is processed. You cannot nominate a processing date for your payment.

If you do not provide correct bank account details, we will pay your benefit by cheque, if possible.

For further information about tax, preservation rules or your benefit payment options, please see our website or the PDS applicable to your membership.
