

Information about compassionate grounds

You may be allowed to withdraw some of your Equip account on compassionate grounds for unpaid expenses.

Compassionate grounds may include payment for:

- medical treatment and medical transport for you or a dependant;
- palliative care for you or a dependant;
- making a payment on a loan or council rates so you don't lose your home;
- modifying your home or vehicle, or buying disability aids for you or a dependant because of a severe disability;
- expenses associated with a death, funeral or burial for a dependant

The amount of super you can withdraw is limited to what you reasonably need. It is paid and taxed as a normal super lump sum. If you are under 60 years old, this is generally taxed between 17% and 22%. If you are over 60 years old, you will not be taxed.

NOTE: You are not eligible to apply for payment on compassionate grounds if you are a temporary resident in Australia.

Apply to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO)

You need to apply for access on compassionate grounds to the ATO. For more information or to apply online, go to www.ato.gov.au and search for 'compassionate grounds' or 'early access to your super' in the search box.

The application is a three-part process.

- 1. Apply using the ATO's online form. The ATO will assess your eligibility for compassionate release of superannuation, which can take up to 14 days. The ATO website states that they can't provide you with a progress update during the assessment phase and once assessed, a message will be sent to your myGov inbox with the outcome. If your application is successful, the ATO will also notify Equip.
- 2. If your application is approved, complete this form and return it to Equip along with a copy of the ATO approval letter so we can process your payment.
- 3. You must pay the expenses with the amount released from Equip and keep your receipts as evidence.

Proving your identity

The law requires Equip to verify the identity of members to safeguard member benefits. The accompanying form outlines when and how you need to provide proof of identity documents to support your application.

If you have only recently joined Equip, we may seek additional documentary evidence to assist in ensuring only genuine compassionate grounds claims are paid.

Please note that if you need to change the name on your account, you will need to provide a linking document. This document proves a relationship between two (or more) names. Suitable linking documents are a certified copy of a marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office.

Tax file number

Equip is authorised to request your tax file number (TFN) under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SIS). Providing your TFN to Equip is optional, but if you don't, your benefit payment may be taxed at the highest marginal rate. For further details on providing your TFN, please see our website or the PDS applicable to your membership.

Other important information for benefit payments

Benefits are usually processed within five days of Equip receiving a fully completed and signed application along with the correct proof of identity documents. The payment may take longer if we need to collect further information from you.

The unit prices applied to your benefit payment will be the latest prices available on the day your benefit is processed. You cannot nominate a processing date for your payment.

If you do not provide correct bank account details, we will pay your benefit by cheque, if possible.

If your account is closed as a result of this application and we receive further contributions for you from a participating employer, a new account will be established for you.

For further information about tax, preservation rules or your benefit payment options, please see our website or the PDS applicable to your membership.
