Tahlia Parrish appointed Equip's Head of Risk

Equip has promoted Tahlia Parrish to the position of Head of Risk, following Paul Synhur's recent move to become Head of Member Advisory. Ms Parrish was previously Risk Manager, reporting to Mr Synhur.

She now reports to Equip's Executive Officer, Governance and Risk, Natalie Alford, who said Ms Parrish would support her and the CEO in the on-going development of Equip's Risk Management Framework and would promote, oversee and support risk management practices across the business.

Ms Parrish will also be responsible for risk reporting to the CEO, the Board and the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee.

"Tahlia has been with Equip for almost three years and during her time, she has provided invaluable support to the Compliance and Company Secretary functions, in addition to supporting Paul Synhur as Risk Manager.

"She has developed a strong depth of skills and experience in risk management. Her promotion also reflects our broader commitment to developing staff and succession planning," Ms Alford said.

Equip has also combined its Legal and Compliance functions, recognising the strong synergies between them. Compliance Manager, Grant Currie, now reports to Equip's Head of Legal, Tony Macafee.
